

DAILY BEIS MEDRASH

Dedicated by Mr. & Mrs. Harvey Shear

MORNING

Halacha 1

R' Tzvi Goode
Mon-Fri 5:45-6:15 am
Classroom 3

The Kitzur Shulchan Aruch will be studied in depth from the sources in the Gemora and key Rishonim. Once the conceptual basis has been clarified, relevant Piskei Halacha and Tshuvos will be discussed to illuminate relevant ramifications.

Mishna 1

(formerly Mishnayos Chabura)

R' Daniel Rubin
Mon-Fri 6:30-7:00 am
Classroom 1

Grow in learning on a daily basis! This dynamic, skill-oriented program will build Hebrew vocabulary, familiarize students with fundamental Talmudic concepts and provide a broad view of Shas.

Gemora A

(formerly Mesechta Shabbos)

R' Mendy Stern
Mon-Fri 6:00-7:00 am
Classroom 2

Do you want a steady chevrusa, a rebbe eager to answer questions, the thrill of pilpul chaverim, a manageable pace, and a dynamic shiur to solidify your understanding of the sugya? Then this morning program is for you! ACCOMODATES MANY LEVELS

Gemora B

(formerly Bekius)

R' Tzvi Goode
Mon-Fri 6:15-7:00 am
Classroom 3

Work your way through Shas at a steady comfortable pace. Ask the questions that will clarify the "shakla v' tarya" and basic concepts. Use the chazara at the end of each sugya to reinforce your understanding before you go on. A perfect way to start the day!

Mussar

R' Tzvi Goode
Mon-Fri 7:45-8:00 am
Classroom 2

Begin each day by clarifying your life's focus – how a Jew should live. In these few moments after Shacharis you will mine the treasures and discover the gems of the great Baalei Mussar. Challenge yourself to make every day more meaningful!

EVENING

Kollel

R' Tuvia Meister
Sun-Thu 8:30-10:00 pm
Beis Medrash

Inspired by his rebbeim and Yesodei HaTorah's flourishing Beis Medrash, R' Tuvia Meister has established, directs and funds a night Kollel devoted to learning Yoreh Deah, with emphasis on tshuvos of contemporary interest and importance.

Daf Yomi

R' Yochanan Stengel
Motzei Shabbos- Thu 10:15-11:00 pm
Beis Medrash

Is it difficult for you to find any time to learn except for late evening? Are you looking for a dynamic, insightful shiur? Do you want to see the breadth of Shas on a daily basis? Then this Daf Yomi is for you!

SKILLS DEVELOPMENT

Dedicated by Mr. & Mrs. Frank Storch

Chumash 1

(formerly Chumash Skills)

R' Ayson Englander
Wed 8:00-9:15 pm
Classroom 1

Learn Chumash skills at a more accelerated rate than with conventional methods. R' Englander's innovative "Gateways to Learning" program offers a systematic approach to acquiring textual and analytical skills. Complete with comprehensive workbooks, the student will quickly learn how to properly translate, recognize root words and prefixes/suffixes, and how to correctly analyze a pasuk with Rashi's commentary.

Chumash 2

(formerly Gemora C)

R' Michael Ring
Mon 8:30-9:30 pm
Beis Medrash

Students will sharpen their Chumash translation skills as they deepen their understanding of Chumash based upon the commentary of the Ramban. Guidance is provided on an individual basis in a small group rather than within a formal shiur.

Gemora 1

R' Mahti Topas
Sun 9:00-10:30 am
Classroom 3

Students will be introduced to the basics of Aramaic vocabulary and Talmudic discourse. Upon mastery of key vocabulary words, attention will be turned to learning fundamental grammar and identifying common Talmudic structures. If you thought learning Gemora was beyond your reach, then this class is for you!

Gemora 2

(formerly Gemora 1a)

R' Ayson Englander
Sun 9:00-10:30 am
Classroom 1

Learn Gemora skills at a more accelerated rate than with conventional methods. The program features a uniquely formatted Gemora together with a comprehensive workbook to expedite the student's acquisition of fundamental skills. Class includes preparation time with a chevrusa, lecture, discussion and review.

Gemora 3

(formerly Sunday Beis Medrash)

R' Zvi Goldberg
Sun 9:00-10:30 am
Classroom 4

As students continue to expand their Aramaic and Hebrew vocabulary, the focus will gradually shift to reading and understanding Rashi's commentary. Once Rashi's commentary is understood, the student will be shown how to integrate this explanation into the Talmud itself. Time will be allotted for chevrusa learning in the Beis Medrash.

Gemora 4

R' Label Cooper
Sun/Tues 8:00-10:00 pm
Classroom 1

Emphasis is placed upon mastering the "shakla v' tarya" (flow of discussion) in the Gemora. In addition, there will be careful analysis of the statement of each Amora. Chevrusa time will be divided between review and preparation for the following shiur.

Gemora 5

Dedicated by Mr. & Mrs. Paysi Golomb

R' Dovid Barer
Sun/Tues 8:00-10:00 pm
Classroom 2

Students will begin by "making a laining" together with their chevruosos in the Beis Medrash. The shiur that follows will begin by clarifying the Gemora according to Rashi. Selected commentaries of Tosafos will be introduced and contrasted with Rashi.

Gemora 6

R' Tzvi Goode
Sun/Tues 8:00-10:00 pm
Classroom 3

Students will begin with their chevruosos by "laining" the Gemora together with selected Rishonim and Achronim. The interactive shiur that follows will focus upon clarifying and deepening one's grasp of the basic "Shitos Rishonim" in the sugya.

YEDIOS HATORAH

Mishna 2

Mishna 2
Mr. Naftoli Willner
Tue 7:00-8:00 pm
Call for location

Obtain a clearer understanding of Mishna with the commentary of Rav Ovadia m'Bartenura. Class participation encouraged. This is a great way to go through Mishnayos.

Gemora C

(formerly Gemora A)

R' Nosson Horowitz
Sun 9:30-10:30 am/Wed 9:00-10:00 pm
Classroom 2

Enjoyment of learning is emphasized irrespective of textual ability. The rebbe's exposition of the Gemora with Rashi invites lively discussions. There is some chevrusa time given for review. SOME EMPHASIS ON SKILL DEVELOPMENT

Gemora D

Dedicated by Mr. & Mrs. Matt Schoenfeld in memory of Maurice Schoenfeld and Max Yablou

(formerly Gemora B)

R' Chaim Pollack
Sun 8:00-9:00 am/Tue 8:00-9:00 pm
Classroom 2

After students read the Gemora with Rashi on their own, the rebbe "opens up the sugya" by explaining the commentary of Tosafos. What follows is a lively dialogue that serves to intensify the students' Ahavas HaTorah as the understanding of the Gemora continues to deepen. SOME EMPHASIS ON SKILL DEVELOPMENT

Halacha 2

R' Pesach Skulnick
Sun 9:30-10:30 am
Beis Medrash

Topics in Shulchan Aruch will be explored in depth by delineating the concepts, dinim, and applications of each Halacha. Upon mastering the principle of a particular topic, students become more aware of shailos that should be asked.

Hashkafa

(formerly Shabbos Malchusa)

R' Tzvi Goode
Thu 9:30-10:00 pm
Classroom 3

R' Shimshon Pincus' z'l extraordinary sefer, "Shabbos Malchusa" will be studied in depth. Understanding and contemplating its meaning will breathe new life into your Shabbos!
